6 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
7 WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
8 AT SEATTLE

9 RYAN P. MOORE,

10 Plaintiff,

11 v.

12 SNOHOMISH COUNTY SHERIFF'S
13 K-9 UNIT et al,

14 Defendants.

15 CASE NO. C18-570 RSM-BAT

16 PRETRIAL SCHEDULING ORDER

17 Defendant has filed an Answer, Dkt. 19, to the amended complaint, Dkt. 6. The Court
18 therefore ORDERS:

19 DISCOVERY

20 Discovery is the process by which one party asks another party to provide relevant 21 information about the case. A party must not file discovery requests or discovery materials with 22 the court unless the party is moving to compel, seeking a protective order, or is otherwise
23 supporting a motion.

24 A party seeking discovery must serve a discovery request on the other party. There are 25 several ways to ask for discovery including: depositions in which one party asks another person questions about the lawsuit; interrogatories in which written questions are served on another

1 party; and requests for production in which a written request to provide documents relevant to
2 the lawsuit is served on another party. See Rules 30, 33 and 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil 3 Procedure.

4 All discovery in this case must be completed by November 23, 2018. This includes
5 serving responses to interrogatory questions and requests for production, and the completion of 6 all depositions. Responses to interrogatory questions and requests for production must be served
7 not later than 30 days after service of the discovery requests. The serving party, therefore, must 8 serve his/her discovery requests by October 20, 2018 so that the responding party can answer by 9 the discovery cut-off. See Rules 33(b) and 34(b)(2) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

10 MOTIONS

11 A motion is a formal request that asks the Court to take certain action. All argument in 12 support of the motion must be set forth in the motion itself and not in a separate document. See 13 Local Rule CR 7(b)(1). Each motion, together with a proposed order, must be served on the 14 opposing party so that the opposing party has an opportunity to respond. In addition, each
15 motion must state in its caption, right below the motion's title, a noting date. The noting
16 date is the date the Court will review your motion.

- 17 • Note the following motions for the day they are filed: (1) stipulated 18 or agreed motions; (2) motions to file over-length motions or briefs;
19 (3) motions for reconsideration; (4) joint submissions pursuant to the optional procedure established in CR 37(a)(1)(B); (5) motions for default and default judgment; and (6) ex parte motions.
- 20 • Note all other non-dispositive motions for the third Friday after filing 21 and service of the motion.
- 22 • Note all dispositive motions (dismissal and summary judgment) and 23 motions for preliminary injunction for the fourth Friday after filing and service of the motion. See Local Rule CR 7(d) for complete rules on noting dates.

1 Any dispositive motion shall be filed and served on or before December 24, 2018. If a
2 motion for summary judgment is filed, it is important for the opposing party to note the
3 following:

4 A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal
5 Rules of Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

6 Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for 7 summary judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be 8 granted when there is no genuine issue of material fact – that is, if 9 there is no real dispute about any fact that would affect the result
10 of your case, the party who asked for summary judgment is entitled 11 to judgment as a matter of law, which will end your case. When a 12 party you are suing makes a motion for summary judgment that is 13 properly supported by declarations (or other sworn testimony), you
14 cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you 15 must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to 16 interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule
17 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's
18 declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue
19 of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence
20 in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered 21 against you. If summary judgment is granted, your case will be 22 dismissed and there will be no trial.

23 Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 962-63 (9th Cir. 1998) (emphasis added).

Defendants MUST serve Rand and Wyatt notices concurrently with motions to dismiss and motions for summary judgment so that pro se prisoner plaintiffs will have fair, timely and adequate notice of what is required of them in order to oppose those motions. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 942 (9th Cir. 2012). The Ninth Circuit's model language for such notices is noted above. Defendants who do not file and serve, in a separate document, the required Rand and Wyatt notices may face (a) immediate striking of their motions with leave to refile and
(b) possible monetary sanctions.

JOINT PRETRIAL STATEMENT

A Joint Pretrial Statement deadline will be established at a later date, pending the outcome of any motions for dismissal or summary judgment.

PROOF OF SERVICE AND SANCTIONS

All motions, pretrial statements, and other filings must be accompanied by proof that such documents were served upon the opposing party's lawyer or upon any party acting pro se. The proof must show the day and manner of service and may be by written acknowledgment of service, by certificate of a member of the bar of this court, by affidavit of the person who served the papers, or by any other proof satisfactory to the court.

Failure to comply with the provisions of this Order can result in dismissal of the case or other appropriate sanctions. The Clerk of Court is directed to send a copy of this Order to plaintiff and to counsel for defendant.

DATED this 21st day of August, 2018.

BRIAN A. TSUCHIDA
Chief United States Magistrate Judge
